

First Multistakeholder Meeting: Securing the Internet of Things
April 4, 2018

9:30 a.m.	Registration opens
10 a.m.	Welcome and overview of the Securing the Internet of Things Canada Project Mark Buell, Regional Bureau Director, North America, Internet Society
10:05 a.m.	Welcome message Pamela Miller, Director General, Innovation, Science and Economic Development – Government of Canada
10:15 a.m.	What are multistakeholder processes? Setting the terms of engagement and defining consensus Larry Strickling, Executive Director, Collaborative Governance Project
11:15 a.m.	Setting the stage Andrew Sullivan – Fellow, Oracle Dyn Jacques Latour – Chief Technology Officer, Canadian Internet Registration Authority Maarten Botterman – Director, GNKS Consult BV Olaf Kolkman – Chief Internet Technology Officer, Internet Society Faud Khan – Chief Executive Officer, TwelveDot
12:00 p.m.	LUNCH + Table Discussions: With the people at your table, appoint a leader, develop rough consensus and/or talking points around: What are IoT devices? Is our working definition sufficient? What can this group accomplish in a year to diminish vulnerabilities IoT devices pose to networks? Note: You will be required to report back on the outcomes of these conversations during our group discussion in the afternoon.
2:00 p.m.	BREAK
2:15 p.m.	Group Discussion: How do we secure the Internet of Things? Reporting back on Table Discussions Andrew Sullivan – Fellow, Oracle Dyn
4 p.m.	Adjourn/Reception Rideau Club – 99 Bank St.